

VISITOR INFORMATION – PARKING OFFENCES

The rangers and security personnel who patrol lands managed by the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust (Harbour Trust) are empowered to enforce vehicle parking rules. This includes the ability to issue visitors with infringement notices for parking offences, requiring the payment of a fine.

FINEABLE PARKING OFFENCES

Offences include parking for longer than indicated by signage, parking outside times indicated by signage, parking in a ticketed parking area without a current parking ticket, stopping or parking in a restricted access area without satisfy conditions prescribed by signage, and parking in an area reserved for people with a disability without possessing and clearly displaying a mobility parking scheme permit.

Fines for parking offences on Harbour Trust lands are prescribed by the latest version of the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust Regulations 2001. For more information, visit harbourtrust.gov.au/publications.

HOW TO PAY A PARKING FINE

You must pay a parking fine within 28 days of the date it was issued. You can pay the following ways:

- In person at any Australia Post shop
- Online at postbillpay.com.au/pay-my-fine
- Using the Post Bill Pay phone service (13 18 16)
- By mail, directly to the Harbour Trust (cheque only).

If paying by mail, post a cheque, together with a copy of your infringement notice, to:

Enforcement Department
Harbour Trust
PO Box 607
Mosman NSW 2088

VISITOR INFORMATION – PARKING OFFENCES

APPEALING AN INFRINGEMENT NOTICE

To appeal an infringement notice, prepare a covering letter for the Harbour Trust and send it, together with a copy of your infringement notice, to:

Mail: Enforcement Department

Harbour Trust

PO Box 607

Mosman NSW 2088

OR

Email: parking@harbourtrust.gov.au

Your covering letter should include a brief reason for your appeal, the Meter ID or street location and bay number of the spot where your vehicle was parked, and contact details, including a telephone number. If you have already paid the fine, please detail the method of payment, amount paid and approximate time and date of payment. If a credit card payment was made, provide the credit card number and a copy of your statement.

If you were not the driver of the vehicle, complete the Statutory Declaration on page three of this document and include it with your covering letter.

PLEASE NOTE

- It is an offence to wilfully and knowingly make a false statement in a Statutory Declaration.
- The Harbour Trust may hold on record photographic evidence of an offence.
- The Harbour Trust's parking meters record and store the details of every transaction.