Spring for Sunset Sessions at Cockatoo Island

Following sold out success from previous seasons, Sunset Sessions returns to Cockatoo Island every Saturday night, 5pm to 8pm from November until March, with a new line-up of underground talent, delicious treats and overnight stays to boot.

Situated in the heart of iconic Sydney Harbour at picturesque Cockatoo Island, Sunset Sessions is belting out smooth tunes a-plenty. Curated by music experts Venue 305 and Music and Booze Co, this fresh line-up of talent is the ultimate way to welcome in the summer weather.

Starting on 23 November until March 2020, 24 Aussie and international artists, across 12 dates will take the stage on Biloela Lawn. Sunset Sessions kicks off with Billie McCarthy and Alice Terry, both showcasing their stories through songs of life, love and loss.

Cockatoo Island is also excited to welcome, lead singer of Phantastic Furniture, Elizabeth Fader as well as Unearthed Chart topper Leonie Kingdom to the line-up of impressive talent.

Adding to the ambience of afternoon tunes, Cockatoo Island's resident food and beverage operator, Marina Café, will be the official caterers for the event, with a menu to tempt. From Grazing Boxes to signature Sunset beverages, there will be something to satisfy even the pickiest of the bunch.

Cockatoo Island also offers Deluxe Camping packages which will be available throughout Sunset Sessions and make for a perfect night on Sydney Harbour.

Tickets, full roster of artists and accommodation can be purchased at harbourtrust.gov.au.
